

A HOLIDAY CELEBRATION

“Winter in the Pines”

Historic Batsto Village, Hammonton, NJ
Sunday, December 3, 2017 • 1pm until 4pm

---

BATSTO VISITOR CENTER AUDITORIUM
1pm until 1:50pm

“Winter in the Pines”

A musical celebration of the season performed by
New Jersey Troubadour
Valerie Vaughn

---

12:45pm until 4pm

CARRIAGE RIDES: South Jersey Carriage Company will be on hand to provide horse drawn carriage rides in a beautiful Victorian style carriage. There is a $3/person charge to ride.

BATSTO POST OFFICE: Visitors to Batsto on Sunday, December 3, 2017, can bring their holiday cards, already stamped and addressed, and have them hand cancelled by a volunteer postmaster. Due to the age and historical significance of the Batsto Post Office, a zip code is not required to be part of the hand postmark cancellation.

BATSTO MANSION: Visit the Victorian style Mansion. See the stately Mansion dressed in the splendor of the holiday season. Tours available for $3 - Tickets at Visitor Center.

BATSTO POST OFFICE EXHIBIT ROOM: Enjoy some tasty refreshments!

BATSTO BLACKSMITH SHOP: Toby Kroll, owner of Three Cedars Forge Blacksmithing, will demonstrate some of the techniques and tools of his trade using the Batsto Blacksmith Shop.

BATSTO MUSEUM SHOP: Do some early shopping in the Visitor Center Museum Shop where you can find Pinelands books, Jersey Devil Shirts, and many other pinelands related gifts.

AURORA CHOIR OF ST. NICHOLAS CHURCH, EGG HARBOR CITY: The Choir will be caroling through the Village entertaining visitors with songs of the season.

Sponsored by the Batsto Citizens Committee, Inc. a 501 (C) (3) NJ non-profit corporation.

